

Class Study Guides and Notes

Second Innings will be starting cybersecurity courses starting 2021. This is our introductory course. This course will give you foundational information to prepare CISSP course. Each class will cover the basic of each module of the exam.

Class 1: Security and Risk Management - Understand and apply concepts of confidentiality, integrity and availability

Class 2: Security Architecture and Engineering - Implement and manage engineering processes using secure design principles

Class 3: Communication and Network Security - Implement secure design principles in network architectures

Class 4: Identity and Access Management (IAM) - Control physical and logical access to assets

Class 5: Security Assessment and Testing - Design and validate assessment, test, and audit strategies

Class 6: Security Operations - Understand and support investigations, Evidence collection, and handling